Message From Our President

Our club is unique in many ways and personally I think the uniqueness of our club makes it better. One of those things is that we don't require each member to attend a set number of outings during the year. All of our lives are busy and can be hectic at times which can affect our attendance at an outing. I think we are all interested in going to outings or we wouldn't be in the club. Many of us have other activities such as grandchildren, family and personal trips (extended and/or short) that have a priority over going to an outing. So we just need to our best and attend outings when we can and enjoy the outings we do attend. This means that we all can't be at an outing when others can. Sometimes 10 or 12 rigs will be at the outing and other times it may be from 3 to 6 rigs. An outing can be great, no matter the number of rigs in attendance. Just getting together with camping friends for an outing makes it great.

Happy RVing,
Dave

Porto Bodega RV Park and Marina.

Porto Bodega sits right on the bay with full hook-up RV sites within feet of the water. So, the Club reserved all of the waterside sites and enjoyed the views, fishing boats comings and goings and the occasional seal checking us out

The Club wanted to try Porto Bodega because it had undergone a recent major transformation with a remodeled club house, updated sites and the removal of residential trailers which had previously reduced its attractiveness to vacationers. We began arriving beginning on April 18th with stays through April 21st.

Our illustrious group was made up of Ed & Joan Fernandez, Bob & Joann Kuhlman, Dave & Marsha Lee, Howard & Judy Hitt, Ken & Vivienne Ha, John & Shirley Watkins, Aaron & Carmen Harris, Rich & Virginia Lee, Bryce & Bessie Smith, Jack & Betty Diggins, Dick LaVergne, and guests Larry & Ruthann Masters. And the real special guests were a visit and stay at a nearby house by Jack and Betty Isola. In other words, we had the makings of partying for days!

Activities included various outings to the town of Bodega and area, whale watching, Spud Point clam chowder and crab sandwiches, fresh oysters, exploring the coastal beaches and, of course, what is becoming the annual breaking down of Dave Lee's truck.....

Once again, Brasas del Mar restaurant lived up to its high customer ratings with great dinners on Friday evening, followed up by the Saturday night potluck feast and a TV Theme Song Jeopardy game by Dick L. The big winner was Carmen Harris who won two first place awards by nefarious skullduggery (all in good fun). Yea, Carmen!

The group can't wait till next year when we do it again, same place, same waterside sites and what will be another great gathering at Porto Bodega. Some sites will be available as early as Wednesday, April 17 right on through to Sunday April 21. See you all then!!

BBQ at Angels Camp

Wagon Masters:

Richard and Virginia Lee & Ken and Vivienne Ha

The weather was beautiful and the scenery was too! We arrived on Thursday with 9 rigs and got settled. We were scattered out some but made the best of it. In the afternoon we visited back and forth and that evening everyone did their own thing for dinner.

On Friday we woke to a beautiful morning and realized that it was going to be quite a bit hotter than the day before. The night before we had decided that we would go over to the fair and visit the exhibits and watch some of the frog jumping. David Lee decided that he was going to rent a frog and was scheduled to jump at 2:00 o'clock. His frog jumped all of 6 and 1/2 inches. He really took a ribbing. That evening Scott and Christy Nyland joined us as she is still teaching and couldn't be there till

Friday. We gathered at the gazebo for barbecued hamburgers and enjoyed the beautiful evening. After dinner some of us stayed at the gazebo and played 31 while the rest went over to David Lee's campsite for a campfire.

Saturday dawned beautiful. Some of the group went to Ironstone winery, some antiquing and some went back over to the fair. The ladies were getting their dishes ready for the Saturday evening potluck. At the potluck, Richard presented David with a trophy for his participation in the frog jump. It was a little mechanical frog that jumped backward and forward. It was a big hit!

The dinner tables were decorated with water lilies, lily pads and frogs. We dined on (mock frog legs) chicken wings and all the wonderful dishes that the ladies usually bring. There were beans, garlic mashed potatoes, salads, appetizers and desserts. At this time we were joined by Ed and Joan Fernandez who live in Sonora. They had just got back from a 2 week trip to the east coast to visit their daughter. After dinner we had our own frog jump contest with plastic frog that were like tidily winks. The winner of that contest was Larry Kochie. Second place was Janice Saylor and third place went to Jane Poynter. They were presented ceramic garden frogs. After the dinner was over we went over to David Lee's for another campfire.

Sunday morning we all got together for our usual scrumptious breakfast and short meeting. After the meeting 6 rigs packed up and headed for home. The rest of the group sat around and visited with each other for a while longer. That evening the remaining campers got together for dinner at Ricks Grill in Angels Camp.

Durango RV Resort, Red Bluff, CA June 7-10, 2012

Jane and Murl Poynter, Wagon Masters

For our June outing, Gold Country Travelers gathered in Red Bluff, California at the Durango RV Resort. This pet friendly RV resort is located on the Sacramento River and is a favorite of our RV club. Included in the amenities are a bocce ball court, putting green and coin operated dog wash.

Chuck and Arlys Rogers, Bessie and Bryce Smith, and Vivienne and Ken Ha joined Wagon Masters Murl and Jane Poynter for the 3-day weekend. We all had a good laugh when we arrived at the Resort and saw the sign in the office welcoming the "Old Country Travelers". (Maybe we should change the club name!)

After we settled in Thursday afternoon, Vivienne grilled hot dogs and the rest of us brought the fixings for an old-fashioned picnic dinner at the Roger's campsite. Friday we explored the local town and surrounding area, the outlet shops and ended the day with dinner Nello's Italian Restaurant in Redding. Saturday's activities included the annual Crawdad Festival at the fairgrounds and a visit to Tehama Oaks Winery for a tour with wine tasting and hors d'oeuvres. We ended the day with dinner back at the campground clubhouse. Jane provided Enchilada Lasagna for the main course; Vivienne brought Spanish rice, Bessie provided the salad and Arlys brought apple pie and ice cream for dessert. As usual, we had enough food for a small third world country. We had planned to picnic again but winds with gusts up to 30 mph (yes-30 mph) kept us indoors.

Sunday we gathered for morning coffee and a potluck-style breakfast in the Poynter's RV. We had an informal club meeting to review the next three club outings. After saying our goodbyes, the Ha's and Smith's headed north to continue their summer travel, the Rogers headed home, and the Poynter's stayed one more day to enjoy the beautiful river view site.
